

Introducing our great new ‘try before you buy’ approach to audio visual automation, right in the heart of London

Let's face it, you wouldn't buy a new home without viewing it, or a new car without taking a test drive, would you? Of course not...

But what if you're planning an audio visual installation or a SMART project for your home or office? Wouldn't it be great if you could have a chance to consult with the experts and try out the goods, before you decide what you need and sign on the dotted line?

Well now you can do exactly that... with the launch of our dedicated RS AV Solutions Digital Multi-Media Lounge, located at the Muralto UK showroom in Seymour Place, London W1.

This unique Central London venue brings together some of the best and latest in home entertainment technology in a great setting, incorporating Muralto UK's unique take on interior design and their cutting edge furniture and accessories.

With such a wide range of audio visual and home entertainment solutions around these days, it can be difficult to know where to start. At RS AV Solutions, we're keen to make the whole experience comfortable, easy and enjoyable for everyone, and our new demo lounge does just that!

Whether you're a residential customer, interior designer, project manager or architect, why not make an appointment and take advantage of the wide range of expertise available? There's home entertainment and audio visual automation advice from our RS AV Solutions experts, home furnishing ideas and solutions from Muralto UK, and we can also recommend interior design specialists if needed, to bring the whole project together in a way that best suits your needs and surroundings.

Our Digital Multi-Media Lounge currently boasts a wealth of equipment, including the latest Loewe 55" 3D individual screen, a Meridian MF10 projector and DSP 5200 Digital Active speakers, a Crestron Control Processor with 6" wireless touch panel, and amBX 4 automated lighting.

But whatever your home entertainment and home automation needs, we can advise on the full range of options available from our specially selected suppliers, and design a bespoke solution just for you.

Our new Digital Multi-Media Lounge is located at Muralto UK, 6 Seymour Place, Portman Village, London W1H 7NA. The showroom opening hours are Monday-Friday 10am-6pm, and by appointment at weekends. To book an appointment to experience the Lounge for yourself, call us at RS AV Solutions on 0845 266 6625 or send us an email: info@rsavsolutions.com.

So what are you waiting for? Try before you buy... with RS AV Solutions.
